Did You Know?

WE HAVE ROKUS FOR CHECKOUT!

Do you want to watch a favorite program that's available through Netflix, but don't have access? We've got you covered. Glencoe residents may now check out Roku streaming devices from the Reference Desk. The Roku streamers come pre-loaded with both Netflix and VUDU for all your movie and television watching pleasure. For checkout and to find out more about our Roku devices, inquire at the Reference Desk. Thank you to the Friends of the Glencoe Library for funding the purchase of Rokus.

IT'S EASIER TO DONATE TO THE LIBRARY

You can now make donations to the library online, through the secure medium of PayPal. If you would like to make an online donation, a "Donate" link can be found atop the library's home page (there is also a "Donate" button at the bottom of the page). Donation brochures will continue to be available at the Checkout Desk.

Donations to the Library

The library deeply appreciates donations made in honor of a loved one or special event.

Donations were recently received from:

- Modestus Bauer Foundation
- Lois Davis
- The Friends of the Glencoe Public Library, with two donations — one in memory of Barry Levin, the other in memory of Ms. Hilda Perl Goodwin.

Big Books: James Joyce's Ulysses

Thursdays at 7:00 p.m., April 6–June 1

Would you enjoy a guided tour of some of the great, daunting works of literature—books that you may have always wanted to read but whose length and reputation for being challenging have held you back? The library's new Big Books series, launching this spring with Ulysses, is intended to be your guide through a rewarding literary experience.

Ulysses is arguably the greatest novel ever written in the English language. On the surface, the book relates the story of Leopold Bloom as he travels and travails through Dublin and its environs throughout June 16 and into the early morning of June 17, 1904. Others in the marvelous cast of characters include the voluptuous Molly Bloom and the melancholy Stephan Dedalus. The reader soon discovers the genius of Joyce through the book's fantastic dialogue and its cascading, deliciously layered narrative.

The instructor for our course will be Richard Reeder. Richard teaches literature courses, including Ulysses, at the Oakton Community College Emeritus program. He is the moderator of the book club at the historic Cliff Dwellers Club, the author of Chicago Sketches, and a regular participant in the library's monthly Writers' Open Mic Night.

Registration is required and space is limited. Glencoe residents have priority if the class fills up.

The Big Books series is sponsored by the Friends of the Glencoe Public Library.

Irish novelist, short story writer, and poet James Joyce

MAJOR HVAC PROJECT AT THE LIBRARY THIS SPRING

Beginning in April, the library will undergo a major improvement to its heating and ventilation systems. Work will commence in April and is scheduled to continue into June. We will do what we can to minimize the effect of this work on library service and collections. However, if you plan to attend a program scheduled for the library's meeting (Hammond) room in April or May, please check with us, or consult the online calendar close to the scheduled date of the program so we can keep you informed of any possible postponements or changes in venue. The result of this work should be a more comfortable library in which to settle year-round.

Book Discussions

Winter Programs

COMING THIS SPRING: HOW TO SPOT FAKE NEWS

Heads up! The library will be presenting a program on how to spot fake news this spring. Watch the website or contact the library for more details.

FIRST FRIDAY KNITTERS

Fridays, 9:30–11:00 a.m., March 3, April 7, and May 5

Dig out your needles and yarn and join us by the fireplace in the Johnson Room for a morning of knitting. Rekindle old abilities, learn new techniques, or just bring your current project to work on. Teresa Grosch, an experienced knitter, will be on hand to help. Yarn donated by Three Bags Full of Northbrook will be available, but you'll need to bring your own needles.

IT'S TIME FOR A FINANCIAL SPRING CLEANING

Thursday, March 9, at 7:30 p.m.

Spring's a great time to get organized—not only your closets and cupboards but also your finances. Get inspired to gather and winnow your key documents and information, then learn how to develop a system for keeping track of your financial essentials going forward. You'll be glad you did when life's changes and challenges come along. Presented by Nancy Doyle, CFA, a Winnetka-based consultant and author of Manage Your Financial Life: A Thoughtful, Organized Approach for Women (2016).

AN AFTERNOON OF SPOKEN WORD POETRY

Sunday, March 12, at 2:00 p.m.

Members of the 2017 New Trier Slam Poetry Team, fresh from competition in the world's largest youth poetry festival, Louder Than a Bomb, will perform individual and choral poems. The program will also include a question and answer session.

BOOKNEWS

Wednesday, March 22, at 1:00 p.m.

Come join the Glencoe Public Library staff for some tea and cookies while we present new and upcoming fiction and nonfiction titles!

OUR REGULARLY SCHEDULED PROGRAMS...

...may be interrupted this spring due to the library's HVAC project. Programs to be held in the Hammond Room in April and May are subject to postponement or change of venue. Please call us at (847) 835-5056 or check the online calendar close to the scheduled program date. We apologize for any inconvenience that may be caused by this construction work.

GLENCOE ANSWERS THE CALL

Sunday, April 9, at 2:00 p.m.

On April 6, 1917, the United States entered World War I and President Woodrow Wilson put out the call to all Americans to make the world safe for democracy. As part of a series commemorating the centennial of the “War to End All Wars,” the Glencoe Historical Society will present a program on the ways Glencoe residents quickly mobilized, with men, women and children stepping up to do their part. Using new GHS research, this program will trace the path of soldiers from Glencoe to the front and paint a picture of wartime life in the village.

VISITING SCHOLAR: ON LYRIC POETRY

Tuesday, April 18, 7:30 p.m.

What is lyric poetry? How does it work? How can we make the most of it in reading? Through a sampling of English verse both early and modern, we will identify some of lyric poetry’s essential features. We will also consider reading poetry aloud as an act of interpretation, and discuss how we as readers can be both faithful and expressive. Presented by Nicholas Bellinson, an instructor with the University of Chicago’s Basic Program. Sponsored by the Friends of the Glencoe Public Library.

DECONSTRUCTING THE HOLOCAUST

Sunday, April 23, at 2:00 p.m.

Michael Kamen, senior docent at the Illinois Holocaust Museum and a Glencoe resident, will lead a conversation about the historical context of the Holocaust. The object is not to re-live the trauma but to try to understand the conditions and political factors that made it possible—and how ongoing awareness of those can help prevent similar events in the future. Holocaust Remembrance Day is April 24.

BEHIND THE SCENES: MOANA

Saturday, April 29, 1:30 p.m. — Moana (2016, PG, 107 min)

THE EAGLE HUNTRESS

Monday, March 20, at 1:00 and 7:00 p.m.

Would you like to be transported to another world? Do you require a bit of inspiration just now? The Eagle Huntress provides these things and more. Otto Bell's crowd-pleasing documentary focuses on the intrepid 13-year-old Aisholpan, attempting to become the first female eagle hunter in her country. Facing adversity from both hostile male hunters and the daunting Mongolian landscape in which she must hunt, the young woman has to prove herself to take a place among her country's greatest hunters.

87 minutes. Rated G.

OUR LITTLE SISTER

Monday, April 17, at 1:00 and 7:00 p.m.

Japanese director Hirokazu Koreeda has distinguished himself with a series of gentle but memorable family dramas. Our Little Sister provides another strong entry to that list. Three sisters travel to the countryside for the funeral of their long-absent father, where they meet their 14-year-old half sister. When young Suzu agrees to join her older sisters, a new chapter in life begins for them all. "It's a movie that, by its serene final scene, changes its viewer. You leave happier, honored to have been, for two hours, part of this family." — Moira Macdonald, Seattle Times.

128 minutes. Rated PG.

THINGS TO COME

Monday, May 15, at 1:00 and 7:00 p.m.

It's been a good year for the incomparable Isabelle Huppert. She has been lauded (and awarded a Golden Globe) for her work in Elle. In Things To Come, Huppert plays a philosophy professor at a crossroads in her life. "Suffused with wry humor, vulnerability and radiant warmth, Huppert's performance captures that delicate period in life during which resignation morphs into graceful, even grateful, acceptance." — Ann Hornaday, Washington Post.

100 minutes. Rated PG-13.

*OUR REGULARLY SCHEDULED PROGRAMS...

Registration is required for this program; please sign up at the Readers' Services desk by April 5, 2017.

SAVE THE DATE!!!!

The Study Break lounge returns on Tuesday, May 30, and ends on Sunday, June 4. Good luck with finals!

Meet the Staff

JAKE ROGERS

Hello! I'm Jake Rogers, and I am one of the newer Adult Services librarians at the Glencoe Public Library. I select the computer, psychology, business, language, large print and travel books. In addition to providing reference and readers' advisory, I'm available for one-on-one "Book-a-Librarian" sessions and would be happy to help you get started with your new gadget.

I grew up on Cape Cod, Massachusetts, where I spent my free time on the beach, in the woods, and of course, at the local library. I graduated from the University of Massachusetts Amherst in 2008 with a degree in history. Sometime in the following year, I got the idea in my head that I should move to a big city far away, so I moved to Chicago. I earned my Masters from University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign in 2015, and started working at Glencoe soon after.

I live in Chicago with my wife and our dog. In our free time, we like to do typical city folk things — try new restaurants, take the dog to the lake, and insist that our out-of-town friends and family stay with us. My reading tastes these days consist mostly of history, crime noirs, and books about pop culture written by bearded nerds. I can often be found slinking around the DVD section seeking out movies about alien encounters, post-apocalyptic wastelands, samurai, or heists. If you want to talk about any of this or more, you can stop by the reference desk on Thursday or Friday, or on occasional weekends.

Friends' Corner

Contact the Friends via email at friends@glencoe图书馆.org or visit us at www.glencoe图书馆.org/friends.htm. Please note that we send all information about the concerts and book sales by email. If you'd like to be notified about the concerts and book sales, please provide your email address. Our email database is separate from the library's database. If the library has your email address, that does not mean the Friends have it!

BOOK SALE IS MARCH 4–6

The spring book sale is upon us already! Members of the Friends (yes, you may join at the door) are invited to the members' preview sale on Friday, March 3, 6:00–8:00 p.m. Membership is available to current residents of Glencoe who donate to the Friends. Regular sale hours are Saturday, March 4, 9:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m.; Sunday, March 5, 12:00 noon–5:00 p.m. (everything half price); and Monday, March 6, 9:00 a.m.–12:00 noon ($3/bag sale). Our shelves are overflowing—come on down and scoop up some great bargains! The next book sale will be June 17–19.

CLASSICAL MUSIC CONCERT

Our next afternoon concert is coming up on Sunday, April 9, at 5:00 p.m. The musicians, who are members of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and the Lyric Opera Orchestra, are Liba Shacht (violin), Carol Cook (viola), and John Sharp (cello). The program will be announced soon.

LATEST GIFTS TO THE LIBRARY

In December 2016, the Friends voted to support the following: three Roku streaming devices with one-year subscriptions to Netflix and Amazon Prime (see page 1 for more information on how you can check these out); The Lucky Trikes musical storytime; Wendy and DB children's concert; Book Buddies; Curtain Call Camp; and Mad Science classes.

HIGHLIGHT ON LIBRARY NEWS

AUTOMATIC RENEWAL IS HERE!

As of March 1, your checked out items will be automatically renewed on their due date! This applies to all books, DVDs, audio books and other items ELIGIBLE for renewal. The usual rules will apply — if there are local holds or a lending library doesn't allow renewal, particular items will not be renewed. If you feel you have something that should be eligible for renewal that was not, call the Checkout Desk at (847) 835-5056. For those of you signed up for e-mail notification, you will receive separate e-mail notices listing items that are automatically renewed and those that are not. If you are not signed up for e-mail notification, automatic renewal notification is another benefit of receiving your library notices electronically. Whether or not you are signed up for e-mail notification, your items will be automatically renewed, as allowed. If you have questions about automatic renewal or wish to sign up for e-mail notification, stop by the Checkout Desk.
