Wordplaygrounds: A Summer Creative Writing Workshop for Teens

Tuesday and Thursday evenings

June 19 through July 12, 7:00–8:30 p.m.

Writing is more than a school assignment; it can become a gratifying part of your life. Students ages 13–18 years old are invited to discover this for themselves at Wordplaygrounds, a four-week creative writing workshop just for teens. Taught by New Trier English teacher John O'Connor, this workshop will meet at the library on Tuesday and Thursday evenings, 7:00–8:30 p.m., from June 19 through July 12. The focus will be on poetry, although short story writing is encouraged as well. This fun, interactive series—which debuted last year and is back by popular demand—is co-sponsored by the Friends of the Glencoe Public Library and Bob Boone/Glencoe Study Center.

To participate in Wordplaygrounds, please sign up at the library's Readers' Services Desk by Monday, June 11. Glencoe teens will be given priority if the workshop fills up.

LOUDER THAN A BOMB

Wednesday, June 6, at 6:30 p.m.

Warm up for Wordplaygrounds or just enjoy an amazing film on Wednesday, June 6, when the library will screen Louder Than a Bomb. This exhilarating, award-winning documentary follows four teams of young poets as they prepare for the world's largest youth poetry slam, which draws more than 600 teenagers from over 60 Chicago area schools. Roger Ebert named Louder Than a Bomb one of the ten best documentaries of 2011. The library's event features an introduction by Glencoe's own Bob Boone, whose writing program Young Chicago Authors sponsors the Louder Than a Bomb poetry slam.

MILLENNIUM PARK

Monday, June 25, at 7:30 p.m.

Described by The New York Times as "the crown jewel of a city that takes pride in public spaces," Millennium Park has been a captivating and controversial destination since its opening in 2004. Get an insider's tour of Millennium Park with Hy Speck, a 12-year architectural docent who will discuss the artists, philanthropists, and "movers and shakers" who created this 24.5-acre center for art, music, architecture, and landscape design.

LATIN AMERICAN ARTISTS OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY: KAHLO, RIVERA, OROZCO, SIQUEIROS

Monday, June 11, at 7:00 p.m.

Art historian Jeff Mishur returns for a lecture on a selection of twentieth century Latin American artists including Diego Rivera, David Alfaro Siqueiros, José Clemente Orozco, and Frida Kahlo.

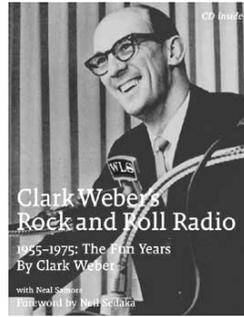

This slide lecture will examine the relationship these artists had with a 1920s cultural and educational reform movement in Mexico known as "Indigenismo" or "Mexicanidad." Promoted especially by José Vasconcelos, Minister of Education, this movement emphasized Mexico's folk traditions and pre-Columbian roots.

CLARK WEBER'S ROCK AND ROLL RADIO

Tuesday, July 24, at 7:30 p.m.

Go back in time to music's fun years--when rock and roll was clean and the Chicago River was dirty! Clark Weber was a very familiar voice in the 1950s, 60s, and 70s as a program director and disc jockey for WLS radio in Chicago. Enjoy some of his stories about the music you loved and the people who made it at this entertaining program on the heyday of Top 40 radio.

THE MAKING OF DOWNTON ABBEY: SETTING THE SCENE

Thursday, August 2, at 7:00 p.m.

The soap opera began hundreds of years before Edith wrote her letter to the Turkish ambassador! Yet the aristocratic way of life that had evolved at places like Downton Abbey was nearly over by the time we first meet the Crawleys in 1912. How did a few families come to own so much English property? Why did Robert's family need him to marry an heiress like Cora? And why do places like Downton Abbey (Highclere Castle in real life) look the way they do? Learn about the landscape designers, land ownership patterns, and inheritance laws that produced great estates like Downton, and why radical changes were inevitable. Landscape historian Barbara Geiger will present this slide lecture. Ms. Geiger specializes in 19th and early 20th century places and teaches architecture at the Illinois Institute of Technology.

FROM PAGE TO STAGE

This year's "From Page to Stage" event will begin with a Kick-Off program and reception at 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, August 23, on the second floor of the Woman's Library Club. This fall, five North Shore public libraries will present a series of programs related to the Writers' Theatre production of Shakespeare's Hamlet. Always a highlight among the "Page to Stage" programs, the kick-off will feature members of the Writers' Theatre production. Coffee, dessert and more good conversation will follow the presentation.

STATE OF TWITTER

Tuesday, June 19, at 1:00 p.m.

Twitter was all the buzz when it first launched in 2006. Now it has over 140 million users generating more than 340 million tweets daily. Is Twitter a fad for people with a lot of time on their hands or is it a mature online resource that has real use? And if you're not a Twitter user, is it for you? We'll consider these questions as we take a look at the State of Twitter.

Wednesday, June 6, at 6:30 p.m.
Come to the library's screening of Louder Than a Bomb, an award-winning documentary about the world's largest youth poetry slam. This 2011 film showed at New Trier this spring and attracted hundreds of people. If you missed it then, catch it here on June 6! See page 1 for more information.

Monday Night at the Movies

Sponsored by the Friends of the Glencoe Public Library.

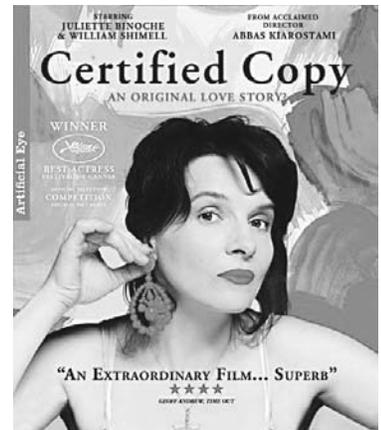

All films in this series are screened at the Woman's Library Club, 325 Tudor Court.

CERTIFIED COPY

Monday, June 18, at 1:00 & 7:00 p.m.

Certified Copy is the first feature by renowned filmmaker Abbas Kiarostami to be set outside of his native Iran. Over the course of an afternoon, two apparent strangers set out for a Tuscan village. But are they really strangers? Mysteries abound in Certified Copy. What's less ambiguous is the performance of the film's star. As the enigmatic woman "Elle," Juliette Binoche is beguiling as ever.

106 minutes. Not Rated.

PROJECT NIM

Monday, July 16, at 1:00 & 7:00 p.m.

Can a chimpanzee raised in a human setting learn to communicate as we do? This was the question to be answered by a landmark experiment begun by a Columbia University psychology professor in 1973. The film is another fascinating work from director James Marsh, winner of the Academy Award for his previous documentary, Man on Wire. "Project Nim is practically irresistible. The story keeps getting odder and richer and more complicated." – Michael Phillips, Chicago Tribune.

93 minutes. Rated PG-13.

JIRO DREAMS OF SUSHI

Monday, August 20, at 1:00 & 7:00 p.m.

You might not expect to find a three-star Michelin restaurant in a Tokyo subway station. However, as David Gelb's documentary Jiro Dreams of Sushi explains, working in that unlikely location is the man who many consider the world's greatest sushi chef. "By the time this graceful film is over, you understand why Japan has declared the bald, bespectacled Jiro a national treasure. Even if you've never tasted sushi, the man's singleness of purpose will inspire you." – Colin Covert, Minneapolis Star Tribune.

81 minutes. Rated PG.

MOVIES ON THE GREEN

Library Staff News

MEET RENEE GRASSI

I am honored and thrilled to be working as the Head of Children's Services at the Glencoe Public Library. Prior to accepting this position, I worked at the Indian Trails Public Library and the Deerfield Public Library. During my four years at Deerfield, I enjoyed everything from leading a storytime for one-year-olds to managing the Teen Volunteer Program and serving all age groups in between. I also developed programs and outreach for children with autism and other special needs and am eager to continue that work here in the Glencoe community. I have an undergraduate degree in English literature from Marquette University. Originally, my plan was to be a high school English teacher. I quickly realized it wasn't the right profession for me. A friend of mine asked to attend an information seminar about library school at Dominican University. I loved librarianship from the very first minute, and went on to complete Dominican's program, receiving my master's degree in library and information science in 2009.

I live in the city, so when I am not working, I love to explore all that Chicago has to offer. A self-professed foodie, I savor the opportunity to explore the multitude of cuisines available around the city. I'm also a Broadway baby at heart and love to indulge in a musical or play whenever I can. I also volunteer at a local cat shelter. And when I'm done giving those kitties love and attention, I come home to two cats of my own: Gus and Sanchez.

I am grateful for opportunity to join such a passionate, inspiring, and dedicated library team. I look forward to meeting families and am excited to share my passion with the rest of the Glencoe community. So, stop by the Children's Desk and say hello!

USED BOOK SALE

Whether your calendar is electronic or good old paper, please note that the next book sale is scheduled for June 9–11. It's a good opportunity to stock up on reading materials for the summer—for the beach, for camp, for vacations. As always, the sale will feature thousands of slightly used books, DVDs, CDs, audiobooks, and more. Glencoe residents who are also current members of the Friends are invited to shop on the Friday night before the sale, when the selection is at its best and the aisles uncrowded.

THE FRIENDS ARE 50!

In 2012, the Friends celebrate the fiftieth year of our founding. That's a lot of book sales, concerts, fund raising campaigns, art fairs (a long time ago), and camaraderie. It's been both satisfying and fun. We're grateful to you, the community of Glencoe, for your support of our work. As part of our golden anniversary, we will march in the 4th of July parade. Please give us a wave or a cheer! We look forward to another half-century of service to our beloved library.

BOOK DONATIONS WELCOME

When you're sorting through your shelves of books and movies, please keep us the Friends in mind. We gratefully accept donations of paperback and hardcover books, DVDs, audiobooks, CDs, and DVDs. (Please note that we cannot accept VHS tapes, music cassette tapes, textbooks, encyclopedias, magazines, or mildewed/water-damaged books.) Place your donations in the bins just inside the library's front door. A tax receipt for your donations is available at the Check-Out Desk.
